

Federal Government Issues Small Business Preparedness Guide for H1N1

Karen S. Aframe | September 21, 2009

On September 17, 2009, the Department of Homeland Security joined the federal Small Business Administration and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Influenza Division to announce a preparedness guide to assist small businesses in planning for the H1N1 flu. This guide can be accessed at <http://www.flu.gov/professional/business/smallbiz.html> and planning resources can also be found here: <http://www.flu.gov/professional/business/index.html>. Additional resources and information may be found in the September 16, 2009, Bernstein Shur Client Alert: A Reminder to Employers to Prepare for H1N1 (http://www.bernsteinshur.com/files-publications/BernsteinShurAdvisory_H1N1forEmployers.pdf).

For additional information please contact Karen Aframe in Bernstein Shur's Manchester office at 603-623-8700 or kaframe@bernsteinshur.com or Kai McGintee in the Portland office at 207-774-1200 kmcgintee@bernsteinshur.com.